CASH BONANZA

Well... week ten has come and gone and unfortunately we still didn't have a winner. Hopefully though, you all had fun each week with the anticipation that perhaps your ticket or tickets may have provided you a winner, as did I. Carol and I had purchased several tickets so those go into the trash can, as we await the next fundraiser for the Knights of Columbus Cash Bonanza. That will not start until after February 12th. The tickets will be just $5.00 each. You may be able to start purchasing tickets February 17 and 18 or sooner if you know the member of the Knights that you get your tickets from. This is one of our fundraising events, since we no longer have the monthly pancake breakfast. You are supporting us by buying as many tickets as you can to help us receive a larger rebate from the State Knights of Columbus from this project. Thank you everyone for your support and for all that you've done in supporting us here at Sacred Hearts Catholic Church.

LEGION OF MARY is collecting canceled stamps for the Missions. If you would like to participate, there is a mailbox in the Narthex for the collection. Please leave a large border around the stamp. This is a perfect time to pass on your stamps from all your Christmas mail!

FIRST SATURDAY: Please join us every first Saturday of the month for Mass and Exposition starting at 8:45 a.m. with open Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until Benediction at 3:15 p.m. Sign up for an hour on the bulletin board or just stop in to visit our Lord in quiet prayer.

SAINT ANSGAR

Saint of the Day: February 3

Patron Saint of: Denmark

The "apostle of the north" (Scandinavia) had enough frustrations to become a saint – and he did. He became a Benedictine at Corbie, France, where he had been educated. Three years later, when the king of Denmark became a convert, Ansgar went to that country for three years of missionary work, without noticeable success. Sweden asked for Christian missionaries, and he went there, suffering capture by pirates and other hardships on the way. Fewer than two years later, he was recalled, to become abbot of New Corbie (Corvey) and bishop of Hamburg. After 13 years work in Hamburg, Ansgar saw it burned to the ground by invading Northmen; Sweden and Denmark returned to paganism.

He directed new apostolic activities in the North, traveling to Denmark and being instrumental in the conversion of another king. By the strange device of casting lots, the king of Sweden allowed the Christian missionaries to return.

Ansgar's biographers remark that he was an extraordinary preacher, a humble and ascetical priest. He was devoted to the poor and the sick, imitating the Lord in washing their feet and waiting on them at table. He died peacefully at Bremen, Germany.

Sweden became pagan again after his death, and remained so until the coming of missionaries two centuries later.

History records what people do, rather than what they are. Yet the courage and perseverance of men and women like Ansgar can only come from a solid base of union with the original courageous and persevering Missionary. Ansgar's life is another reminder that God writes straight with crooked lines. Christ takes care of the effects of the apostolate in His own way; He is first concerned about the purity of the apostles themselves.
