FROM THE PASTOR

Greetings in the Lord Jesus Christ! We had a really great parish picnic at Sacred Hearts. Thanks to all who provided food, who set up and cleaned up, and to John Brehm for giving us rides on his train. He even let me drive! Thanks to all who came out as well.

We are excited about the number of families who are joining Sacred Hearts Church in recent weeks. We have had at least five in the past two months. Welcome to those who have joined our parish community!

Congratulations to Ellee and Jason Kreager who had their son, Joseph Thomas, baptized last Sunday at Mass. Welcome to the Christian family, Joseph!

We are also excited about the number of OCIA members who are interested in becoming Catholic. We have at least eight who are going through the classes to become Catholic. While OCIA is typically for adults, we have one family with four children who want to become Catholic and are in attendance with the Catholic grandparents. If you know of anybody who might be interested in becoming Catholic, please invite them to consider it and let us know. Even if it is in the middle of the class year, we can figure out a way to get them involved in the process right away. Most of those in the class currently are with a spouse or family member who has invited them, so personal invitation is most effective. Fr. Keller and I trade off on teaching the classes right here in Foeller Hall.

Our Hispanic missionaries, who primarily serve the Marion Hispanic community but who live at the rectory at Sacred Hearts, have started a Bible Study for parishioners of Sacred Hearts on Friday mornings after the 8:45 a.m. Mass (so around 9:15 a.m.). Cristian and Oscar both speak English, so we are grateful to them for serving our parish in this way.

Thank you to the many other groups who serve the parish as well. Many go unnoticed, but your quiet service to the parish is like the mustard seed which blossoms into a large bush, becoming quite the blessing to many.

May God bless you!

Fr. Ed Shikina

MOTHER TERESA AND ME

On October 5, a new film about the life of Saint Teresa of Calcutta will be released in select theaters nationwide. It was financed entirely through donations and all the profits from the film will be donated in the spirit of Mother Teresa to the poorest of the poor. This film is relatable, challenging, and ultimately life-affirming. It is meant to impact the culture beyond Catholics who already know and love Saint Mother Teresa.
