Anyone that has helped being a sacristian knows how the missal the priest's have been using is falling apart. If you haven't joined HOST Guild yet, you still have time to do so. There are membership forms available in the narthex. You can either drop it off in the mail slot in the office or bring it to our November meeting with your dues of $10. Our next meeting will be on Monday, November 14th starting at 6:30 p.m. in Foeller Hall. Kathy Cooper and Linda Shankle will be providing refreshments for the meeting.

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

You may notice that the back of the church looks a little different. There is a story behind this. Everyone knows that the old church was lost to a fire on Thanksgiving Day, 2013. Also lost in the fire was a new electronic organ. When the new organ was purchased, the parish also bought two art pieces including non-speaking aluminum organ pipes from a company in Florida, to cover some of the electronic organ speakers. The two organ facades cost $20,000. As it happens, the facades arrived late -- so late, in fact, that they could not be installed in the original church as planned, because by that time it had burned to the ground.

As we now have a historic pipe organ with pipes that actually make sounds, the non-speaking facades have become redundant. We were able to sell them to a church in Indiana for $14,000. That church also paid for their removal. The money will come in handy because the blower that supplies air for our pipe organ, installed in 1988, is due for replacement soon. We will also be able to establish an endowment fund to provide for the maintenance and upkeep of our historic pipe organ. We will also close in the holes left behind by the removal of the facades.

Last Wednesday evening I met with the parish pastoral council. We discussed progress on maintenance items and considered the implications of the Real Presence, Real Future project of the Diocese of Columbus for our parish community. I have an appointment early next month with Bishop Fernandes to discuss this further. As always, keep our Bishop in your prayers as he has many weighty matters to consider every day.

Sincerely Yours, in Christ,
Father Thomas Buffer
Pastor

Please join us every 1st Saturday of the month for Mass and Exposition starting at 8:45 a.m. with open Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until Benediction at 3:15 p.m..

Sign up for an hour on the office bulletin or make a stop in to visit our Lord in quiet prayer.

SUNDAY, November 6, 2022,
Come join us after the 9:00 a.m. Mass for fellowship and refreshments

LASAGNA DINNER, RAFFLE, SILENT AUCTION AND LIVE AUCTION: The HOST Guild will have a FREE lasagna dinner on Sunday, December 4th immediately following Vespers. In November we will have a sign up sheet on the bulletin board for those planning to attend. What could be better than a FREE dinner. Gluten free dinners will also be provided. On December 4th at the dinner, we will be drawing for prizes in our raffle which will include a full/queen size quilt donated by Julie Blankenship, a Christmas lap quilt donated by Cheryl Jason, ¼ of a beef and ½ of a hog. We will begin selling raffle tickets after the weekend masses starting in November.

We already have several donations for our silent and live auctions. As we did last year, we are relying on our parishioners to donate baskets for the silent auction as well as items for the live auction. If you do not want to make a basket yourself, please donate items and we will put the basket together for you or put your item with other items donated. Once you get your basket completed or gather your items to be donated, you can drop them off at the office. The silent auction baskets will be on display starting mid November.

KNIGHTS NOTES

We are saying the rosary every Sunday starting at 8:30 a.m. before 9 a.m. Mass. If you are interested in leading the rosary, please contact Dennis Zoulek or any Knights of Columbus member.

Football CRAZR tickets need to be turned into Will Schindley NO Later than October 25th. He needs to put in numerical order before mailing them along with the check. So if you want to buy into this it equals $2.00 per week tickets are $20.00 each. Ask a K of C member about getting your ticket before it is too late!

Social meeting is on Wednesday the 26th @ 7:00 p.m. The next Business meeting is November 2nd at 7:00 p.m..

Attention Catholic men age 18 and over, October is the month for you to join us in the Knights of Columbus. We are looking forward to each one of you becoming a Knight of Columbus right here at Sacred Hearts parish. The state of Ohio has set the month up for what they are calling Membership Blitz. You can join us and your first year's dues are free. By joining us in the Knights it will help you grow in your Catholic faith, it can make you a better husband, and better fathers. So there's not any good reason why you should not belong to the Knights of Columbus, because it will help make you a better man. Being a member will not consume your time, you should know that we believe that family always comes first. Therefore when it comes to volunteering any of your time is completely up to you. So please consider joining us this month!

Our business meeting is set for October 5th at 7 pm. We are going to begin working on a small trailer, sanding and painting. We are going to display our new Keep Christ in Christmas signs on it with some kind of spot lights. We have even discussed the possibility of walking with it if Mt. Gilead has a Christmas parade. Still another way of evangelizing our faith.

In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples to pray always without becoming weary., indeed our prayer must always be an expression of our love for God, our family, our world, and especially for the suffering poor. As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: NEXT WEEKEND we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.
