FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

As November is a month dedicated to remembering the faithful departed in prayer, it seems fitting that Fr. Keller and I have been celebrating many funerals lately. In fact, during the last week, we celebrated six funerals. I'm sure everyone understands that funerals take priority over other things, which means that the priests can sometimes get behind when it comes to taking care of more routine business. That said, I hope everyone will excuse a rather short bulletin column!

Sincerely Yours, in Christ,
Father Thomas Buffer
Pastor

Please join us every 1st Saturday of the month for Mass and Exposition starting at 8:45 a.m. with open Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament until Benediction at 3:15 p.m. Sign up for an hour on the office bulletin or make a stop in to visit our Lord in quiet prayer.

HOST GUILD: We had several more new members join us at our meeting in October. At our October meeting we voted to purchase a larger holy water sprinkler than we had originally voted on and also voted to purchase a new Roman Missal for the altar. Anyone that has helped being a sacristian knows how the missal the priest's have been using is falling apart. If you haven't joined HOST Guild yet, you still have time to do so. There are membership forms available in the narthex. You can either drop it off in the mail slot in the office or bring it to our November meeting with your dues of $10. Our next meeting will be on Monday, November 14th starting at 6:30 pm in Foeller Hall. Kathy Cooper and Linda Shankle will be providing refreshments for the meeting.

LASAGNA DINNER, RAFFLE, SILENT AUCTION

AND LIVE AUCTION: The HOST Guild will have a FREE lasagna dinner on Sunday, December 4th immediately following Vespers that are at 5 p.m. In November, we will have a signup sheet on the bulletin board for those planning to attend. What could be better than a FREE dinner. Gluten free dinners will also be provided.

On December 4th at the dinner, we will be drawing for prizes in our raffle which will include a full/queen size quilt donated by Julie Blankenship, a Christmas lap quilt donated by Cheryl Jason, ¼ of a beef and ½ of a hog. We will begin selling raffle tickets after the weekend masses starting in November.

We already have several donations for our silent and live auctions. As we did last year, we are relying on our parishioners to donate baskets for the silent auction as well as items for the live auction. If you do not want to make a basket yourself, please donate items and we will put the basket together for you or put your item with other items donated. Once you get your basket completed or gather your items to be donated, you can drop them off at the office. The silent auction baskets will be on display starting mid November.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 4, 2022,
Come join us after the 9:00 a.m. Mass for fellowship and refreshments

KNIGHTS NOTES

We are saying the rosary every Sunday starting at 8:30 a.m. before 9 a.m. Mass. If you are interested in leading the rosary, please contact Dennis Zoulek or any Knights of Columbus member.

The next Business meeting is December 7th at 7:00 p.m.

Attention Catholic men age 18 and over, October is the month for you to join us in the Knights of Columbus. We are looking forward to each one of you becoming a Knight of Columbus right here at Sacred Hearts parish. The state of Ohio has set the month up for what they are calling Membership Blitz. You can join us and your first year's dues are free. By joining us in the Knights it will help you grow in your Catholic faith, it can make you a better husband, and better fathers. So there's not any good reason why you should not belong to the Knights of Columbus, because it will help make you a better man. Being a member will not consume your time, you should know that we believe that family always comes first. Therefore when it comes to volunteering any of your time is completely up to you. So please consider joining us this month!

In today's Gospel we find that God is a God of the living, and this is indeed the core of our hope. Jesus has risen and is with us, therefore, at no time should we be without hope for the future.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give hope to your neighbors who have nothing.

St. Vincent De Paul Informational Meetings Please join us in Foeller Hall immediately following the Mass on Saturday, November 5, 2022 and Sunday, November 6, 2022 to learn more about the new St. Vincent DePaul conference that has been formed at Sacred Hearts Parish. Board members will be present to supply information and answer questions. Volunteer sign-up sheets will be available. Light refreshments will be served Saturday evening and the society will be hosting the coffee and donuts after Mass on Sunday. We look forward to sharing the good news with all of you.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY: THANK YOU for your generous response to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith last weekend on World Mission Sunday. Our parish raised $115. You may stay connected year-round to the Pope's missions, continuing the commitment of World Mission Sunday, by visiting MISSIO.org.
